

McAfee Enterprise Anti-Corruption Policy for Third Parties

Anti-Corruption Policy for Third Parties

1.0 Purpose

This policy explains the anti-corruption obligations that third parties must comply with when doing business with McAfee Enterprise.

2.0 Scope

This Policy applies to all third parties who perform services for or on behalf of McAfee Enterprise.

3.0 Policy Statement

McAfee Enterprise can be held liable for the actions of third parties who perform services for or on McAfee Enterprise's behalf. Such actions may include interactions with Government Officials, Government Employees or employees of State Owned Enterprises. Third parties are expected to comply with McAfee Enterprise's Anti-Corruption Policies, and local, regional or country anti-corruption laws and regulations, regardless of local business practices or social customs.

4.0 Compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws and McAfee Enterprise Anti-Corruption Policies

As a third party doing business with McAfee Enterprise, you are expected to comply with the following policies.

4.1 No Bribery

McAfee Enterprise strictly prohibits all forms of bribery. This means never offer, promise or accept bribes or kickbacks and do not participate in or facilitate corrupt activities of any kind.

4.2 Follow Code of Conduct

McAfee Enterprise expects its business to be conducted with uncompromising integrity and professionalism. This expectation applies to all McAfee Enterprise employees and third parties when conducting business or providing services on McAfee Enterprise's behalf. Third parties are expected to read and understand McAfee Enterprise's Code of Conduct.

4.3 No Facilitation Payments

No payments may be made on behalf of McAfee Enterprise directly to, or for the personal benefit of, any government official, government employee, or anyone acting in an official capacity to influence that person to engage in or refrain from an official act. This prohibition applies to all McAfee Enterprise employees and third parties when conducting business or providing services on McAfee Enterprise's behalf, regardless of the amount.

Expediting Fees are published government rates or fees that a government agency or entity charges for the purpose of expediting a service; these are permissible payments. Such payments are made to a government agency and a receipt for the expedited service must be obtained as proof of payment.

5.0 How to Raise Questions or Concerns

If you have questions or concerns, you have numerous avenues to report them to McAfee Enterprise. Visit the McAfee Enterprise Helpline to find more information on Reporting Ethics and Legal Concerns.
